

Out of the 365 individuals in the data set, the stress level paired with high quality sleep follows a right skewed exponential distribution

